

The state of Indiana has it's own "Do Not Call" list. Banks in Indiana are attempting to have the list declared unlawful, and to repace it with a federal law. I'm in opposition to this, and I request that the FCC leave the Indiana "Do Not Call" list in place.